Destination Design!

A NEW event for Senior High 4-H members in grades 9th through 12th:

The 2024 4-H Destination Design will travel to Atlanta, Georgia on June 25-27! There will be experiential learning activities in Creative Arts and Design, Savannah College of Art and Design Tour, as well as more great educational activities to participate in during this new event! Lodging at the Embassy Suites Buckhead location and 5 meals are included. Attached is the 4-H Destination Design Application as well as a couple of social media flyers.

All Senior High 4-H members are eligible to apply. Preference will be given to 4-H members who have: a) submitted a Level 1 or Level 2 portfolio in Clothing and Textiles or Line and Design, b) participated as finalists in the aforementioned project areas at 4-H Roundup and/or, c) attended Fashion and Design Conference in the last five (5) years.

Senior High 4-H members must complete the attached application and wait for approval before being registered to attend. Applications should be emailed or delivered to James McMillion by April 19 at 4:30pm EST. Once applications are received, the planning committee will consider applications in the order they are received and then actual participants will be notified on May 1st. Note, this event is limited to 20 4-H participants. Cost for the event is $350 per participant and should be paid to the county office upon acceptance and registration.

After the registration deadline, participants attending the trip will receive a letter in the mail. This will include important information for parents/guardians and participants in preparation for Destination Design.
